Connect Apple Music to Facebook Messenger

Today, with the expansion of social networks; And various messengers; The functional and special features of the message of the people are more important than before, and each of these platforms can offer more possibilities; Attract more users. Sharing music being played between friends is also an attractive feature of a messenger. A feature that Apple Image and Facebook Messenger are currently equipped with; The following explains how to connect Apple Music to Facebook Messenger.

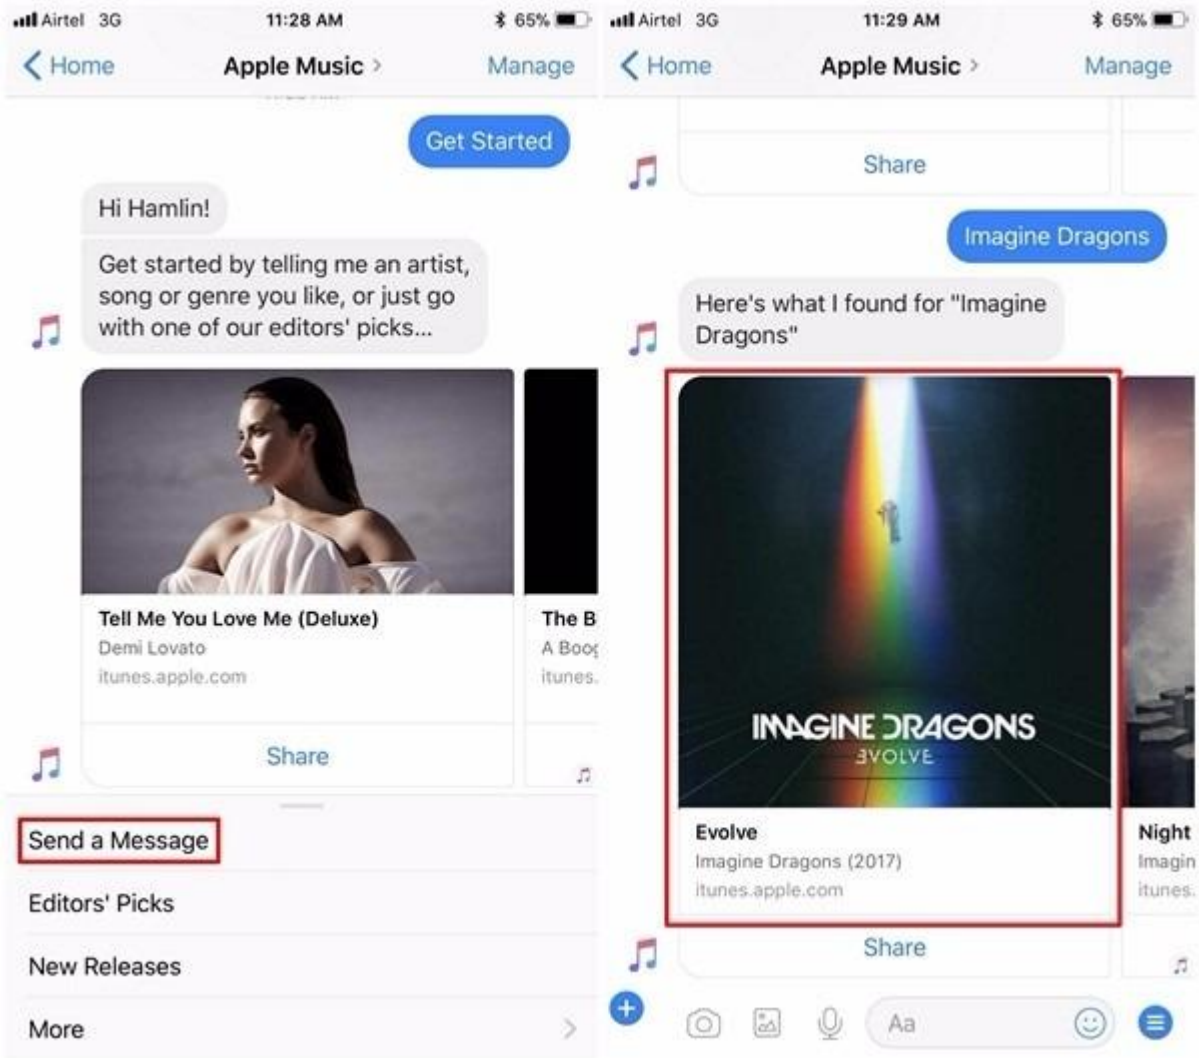
The first step is to; Open Facebook Messenger on your iOS or Android device; Of course, it is also possible to use the desktop version; After opening the app in the search menu at the top of the screen; Search for Apple Music. In the first search results you will see Apple Music; تب tap on it and then click on the get started option.

After doing this, you will find out what the Apple Music bot has; One of the features of this bot; It is possible to chat with the Apple Music bot; انجام To do this chat; Click Send a message .

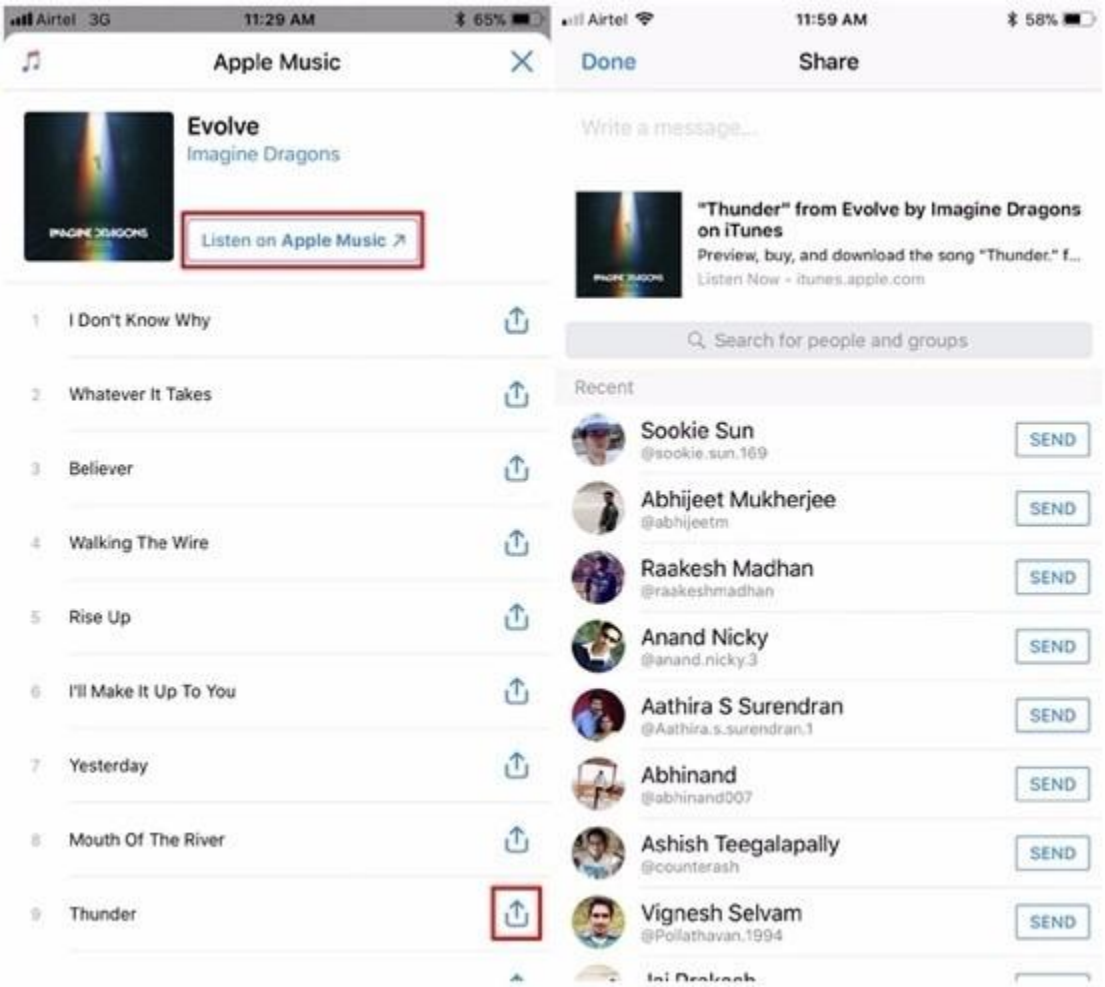
Now you can ; Type the name of the artist or music or album or whatever you prefer; For example me

Imagine Dragons

I typed and Bot showed me several albums from this band.



Okay; Now tap on the album of your choice in the Apple Music bot to display all the music from that album. In the Album menu, you can now play music on Apple Music or share music with your Facebook friends; To do this, tap on the tap icon and select the contact you want.



Also with word search

Playlists

In Apple Music bot; You will have access to many of the most attractive Apple Music playlists.

Related product: Purchase an Apple Music subscription

The various features of messengers such as Emsage and Facebook Messenger and the coordination of these two messengers with Apple Music can be considered as one of the strengths of this messenger that messengers such as WhatsApp do not have this compatibility with Apple Music.
Other platforms coordinated by Facebook with Apple Music include Instagram, which allows smart sharing of your music on the Instagram story.